Title IX

- Discrimination
  - Sex/Gender Discrimination
  - Program Equity
  - Quid pro Quo
  - Hostile Environment
  - Retaliation

- Harassment
• Athletics is not mentioned in the 1972 Title IX statute
• Proposed regulations (1974) did and created a fire-storm
• Regulations passed in 1975 and athletics was given three years to comply
• Dec. 11, 1979, HEW issued the “intercollegiate Athletics Policy Interpretation”
  – Contained the ‘Three-Part Test” to determine Title IX compliance with student interests and abilities
• 1984: Grove City College v. Bell – Exempted most athletic programs from Title IX
1988: Civil Rights Restoration Act restored Title IX’s application to athletics.

1990s: OCR studied the efficacy of the Three-Prong Test and institutions’ compliance with it.

2003: OCR again examined the Three-Part Test and restated that it remained unchanged.

2005: “Additional Clarification” from OCR that weakened 3-part test.

• Applies to:
  – Intercollegiate athletics
  – Intramurals
  – Club teams

• However, 3-part test and the 13 program components are typically not as problematic for Intramurals and clubs because those programs are self-initiated and benefits provided by the institution are far fewer.
• Title IX DOES require an institution to:
  – Provide an equal opportunity for female and male students to become intercollegiate athletes.
    ▪ Analyzed by means of a three-part test
  – Provide equivalent treatment of participants in the overall women’s program as compared to the overall men’s program.
    ▪ Analyzed according to thirteen (13) different program components.

Source: Valerie McMurtrie Bonnette (2004), Title IX and Intercollegiate Athletics, p.7.
• Title IX does not require an institution to:
  – Provide the same funding to the overall women’s and men’s programs
  – Provide the same funding to men’s and women’s teams on the same sport
  – Provide specific benefits to teams
  – Offer the same number of teams for men and women
  – Offer the same sports for men and women
  – Provide the same benefits to men’s and women’s teams in the same sport
  – Compete at a specific level

EQUALITY V. EQUITY

In the first image, it is assumed that everyone will benefit from the same supports. They are being treated equally.

In the second image, individuals are given different supports to make it possible for them to have equal access to the game. They are being treated equitably.

In the third image, all three can see the game without any supports or accommodations because the cause of the inequity was addressed. The systemic barrier has been removed.
Title IX compliance requirements:
- Effective accommodation of interests and abilities
- Financial assistance proportionality
- Treatment of student-athletes

Compliance may be delegated to the senior women’s administrator or compliance officer in athletics.

The oversight of compliance remains the responsibility of the Title IX coordinator.
- Need for outside education

The dangers of being both.
THE THREE-PART TEST: ACCOMMODATION OF INTERESTS AND ABILITIES

1. Proportionality
2. Program Expansion
3. Full Accommodation
Effective accommodation of interests and abilities:

• Part 1: Opportunities for males and females substantially proportionate to their respective enrollments; OR

• Part 2: Where one sex has been underrepresented, a history and continuing practice of program expansion responsive to the developing interests and abilities of that sex; OR

• Part 3: Where one sex is underrepresented and cannot show a continuing practice of program expansion, whether it can be demonstrated that the interests and abilities of that sex have been fully and effectively accommodated by that present program.

Note: there are differences for IHE and K-12.
For purposes of Title IX compliance, a “participant” is defined as those athletes who:

– Regularly receive institutionally-sponsored support normally provided to athletes

– Regularly participate in organized practices or team meetings and activities during the season

– Are listed on the eligibility or squad list

– Are injured, but continue to receive financial aid on the basis of athletic ability

COUNTING PARTICIPANTS

“Participants” also include those who:

- Are listed on a team’s squad or eligibility list AND are on the team as of the team's first competitive event
- Join the team during the season*
- Are a walk-on
- Are a member of the JV, freshman, “B” team, etc.
- Quit or were cut after the first competitive event
- Are a Redshirt athlete
- Are a mid-year transfer eligible to participate in the spring

*Season begins on the date of a team’s first intercollegiate competitive event and concludes on the date of the final intercollegiate competitive event.

The following are not participants:

- Unfilled team slots or positions
- Club, intramural and recreation program participants
- Cheerleaders*
- Athletes who quit or are cut BEFORE first competitive event of the season
- Sport participants out of season (e.g.: spring football)
- Scrimmage or practice squads
- Student managers*, student coaches*, student trainers*
- Students who are academically ineligible
- Mid-year transfers if no spring season

*Even if they receive scholarships

PART 1: PROPORTIONALITY
OPPORTUNITIES FOR MALES AND FEMALES SUBSTANTIALLY PROPORTIONATE TO THEIR RESPECTIVE ENROLLMENTS

• Substantially proportionate accounts for natural fluctuations in enrollment and participation rates, but institutions must adjust if shifted enrollment or participation shifts persist.

• OCR uses a case-by-case analysis, rather than a rigid statistical requirement (e.g.: within 1% of student body).

• OCR would also consider opportunities to be substantially proportionate when the number of opportunities that would be required to achieve proportionality would not be sufficient to sustain a viable team.

PART 2: PROGRAM EXPANSION

HISTORY AND CONTINUING PRACTICE OF PROGRAM EXPANSION RESPONSIVE TO THE DEVELOPING INTERESTS AND ABILITIES OF THE UNDERREPRESENTED SEX

• In analyzing a history of program expansion, OCR considers:
  – An institution's record of adding intercollegiate teams, or upgrading teams to intercollegiate status, for the underrepresented sex;
  – An institution's record of increasing the numbers of participants in intercollegiate athletics who are members of the underrepresented sex; and – An institution's affirmative responses to requests by students or others for addition or elevation of sports.

In analyzing a continuing practice of program expansion, OCR considers:

– An institution's current implementation of a nondiscriminatory policy or procedure for requesting the addition of sports (including the elevation of club or intramural teams) and the effective communication of the policy or procedure to students; and

– An institution's current implementation of a plan of program expansion that is responsive to developing interests and abilities.

PART 3: FULL ACCOMMODATION
WHETHER IT CAN BE DEMONSTRATED THAT THE INTERESTS AND ABILITIES OF THAT SEX HAVE BEEN FULLY AND EFFECTIVELY ACCOMMODATED BY THAT PRESENT PROGRAM

• OCR will consider whether:
  – There is sufficient unmet interest to support an intercollegiate team
  – There is sufficient ability to sustain an intercollegiate team
  – There is a reasonable expectation of competition for the team

LEVELS OF COMPETITION

1. Equivalently Advanced Competitive Opportunities
2. Upgrades of Competitive Opportunities
OCR assesses compliance by examining:

1. Whether the competitive schedules for men's and women's teams, on a program-wide basis, afford proportionally similar numbers of male and female athletes equivalently advanced competitive opportunities; OR

2. Whether the institution can demonstrate a history and continuing practice of upgrading the competitive opportunities available to the historically disadvantaged sex as warranted by developing abilities among the athletes of that sex.

ATHLETIC FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

- Financial Assistance
- Counting participants for Financial Assistance
• Must provide reasonable opportunities for financial assistance to members of each sex in proportion to the participation rate of each sex in intercollegiate athletics.
  – Does NOT require same number of scholarships for men and women or scholarship of equal value.
• Total amount awarded must be “substantially proportionate to the participation rates” of men and women in the institution’s athletic programs.
• Disparities could be non-discriminatory in origin.
  – E.g.: in-state vs. out-of-state recruits; reasonable professional decisions
• Also applies to work-related aid programs or loans.

• There is a different standard for counting multi-sport athletes for scholarship participants than for all other forms of Title IX analyses.

• Scholarship counting
  – An athlete who participates in multiple sports is counted as only ONE scholarship.
  – Based on total program participation, not individual team analysis.
  – Typically does not matter which team the student is counted for.

• All other forms of Title IX analysis
  – An athlete who participates in multiple sports is counted as a participant for each sport.

“OTHER ATHLETIC BENEFITS AND OPPORTUNITIES”

- Equipment and supplies
- Scheduling (games and practice times)
- Travel and per diem allowance
- Coaches
- Tutors

- Locker rooms and other facilities
- Medical and training services
- Housing and dining services
- Publicity
- Recruitment of student athletes
- Provision of support services
OVERSIGHT OF ATHLETICS
GENDER EQUITY

Equivalent Treatment of Student Athletes

- Scholarships
- Equipment & Supplies
- Scheduling
- Tutoring
- Medical and Training Services
- Support Services
- Coaching
- Housing & Dining
- Locker Rooms & Facilities
- Travel & Per Diem
- Publicity
Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

• The quality of equipment and suppliers
• The amount of equipment and supplies
• The suitability of equipment and supplies
• The maintenance and replacement of the equipment and supplies
• The availability of equipment and supplies

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

- The number of competitive events per sport
- The number and length of practice opportunities
- The time of day competitive events are scheduled
- The time of day practice opportunities are scheduled
- The opportunities to engage in available pre-season and post-season competition

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

- Modes of transportation
- Housing furnished during travel
- Length of stay before and after competitive events
- Per diem allowances
- Dining arrangements

Key factors in examining coaching:

• Opportunity to receive coaching
  – Relative availability of full-time coaches
  – Relative availability of part-time and assistant coaches
  – Relative availability of graduate assistants

• Assignment of coaches
  – Training, experience, and other professional qualifications
  – Professional standing

Key factors in examining coaching:

• Compensation of coaches
  – Rate of compensation (per sport, per season)
  – Duration of contracts
  – Conditions relating to contract renewal
  – Experience
  – Nature of coaching duties performed
  – Working conditions
  – Other terms and conditions of employment

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

• Academic Tutoring
  – The availability of tutoring
  – Procedures and criteria for obtaining tutorial assistance

• Assignment of Tutors
  – Tutor qualifications
  – Training, experience, and other qualifications

• Compensation of Tutors
  – Hourly rate of payment by nature subjects tutored
  – Pupil loads per tutoring season
  – Tutor qualifications
  – Experience
  – Other terms and conditions of employment

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

- Quality and availability of the facilities provided for practice and competitive events;
- Exclusivity of use of facilities provided for practice and competitive events;
- Availability of locker rooms;
- Quality of locker rooms;
- Maintenance of practice and competitive facilities; and
- Preparation of facilities for practice and competitive events.

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

• Availability of medical personnel and assistance.
• Health, accident and injury insurance coverage.
• Availability and quality of weight and training facilities.
• Availability and quality of conditioning facilities.
• Availability and qualifications of athletic trainers.

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

• Housing provided

• Special services as part of housing arrangements (e.g., laundry facilities, parking space, maid service)

Key factors in examining the equivalence for men and women:

• Availability and quality of sports information personnel;
• Access to other publicity resources for men's and women's programs; and
• Quantity and quality of publications and other promotional devices featuring men's and women's programs.

Key factors:

• Whether coaches or other professional athletic personnel in the programs serving male and female athletes are provided with substantially equal opportunities to recruit;

• Whether the financial and other resources made available for recruitment in male and female athletic programs are equivalently adequate to meet the needs of each program; and

• Whether the differences in benefits, opportunities, and treatment afforded prospective student athletes of each sex have a disproportionately limiting effect upon the recruitment of students of either sex.

The administrative and clerical support provided to an athletic program can affect the overall provision of opportunity to male and female athletes, particularly to the extent that the provided services enable coaches to perform better their coaching functions.

Key factors:

• The amount of administrative assistance provided to men's and women's programs;
• The amount of secretarial and clerical assistance provided to men's and women's programs.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

• Transgender athletes
  - Title IX and Equal Protection Clause
  - Current state of federal regulations
  - Withdrawal of Obama-era protections
  - State laws

- Consider:
  - Sex-segregated sports teams
  - Locker rooms/bathroom
  - Institution-wide policies

RED FLAGS TO LOOK FOR AND ASK ABOUT

• Proportionality
• Program Expansion
• No Unmet Interest
• Retaliation
• Equal Pay
• Hostile Environment
“Our proportionality is within 5 percentage points - close enough!”

“We will reach proportionality through roster management!”

“We just added a women’s team so we definitely comply with prong two!”

“It’s OK, we are cutting a men’s and a women’s team!”

“But no one has complained about our lack of women’s sports!”

“We absolutely have enough money to add a new men’s team!”
Gender imbalance on the coaching staff.

Closed hiring.

Salaries not benchmarked.

Female/women’s coaches more often disciplined.

Complaints about hostile environment.

Complaints about gender inequity.
SEXUAL HARASSMENT, SEXUAL VIOLENCE AND INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE AND SPORT

- Recent Examples

- Obligations
- Challenges
COLLEGIATE ATHLETICS AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE: SOME EXAMPLES

- Baylor University
- Florida State University
- University of Montana
- University of Georgia
- University of Colorado
- Vanderbilt University
- Oregon State University
- Xavier University
- University of Missouri
- University of Notre Dame
PREVALENCE OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN IN THE ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

• Male athletes are more represented in violence against women statistics vs. their non-athlete counterparts.
• Male student athletes = 3.3% of student population.
  – 19% of sexual violence.
  – 35% of domestic violence.
The Executive Committee expects NCAA members to...operate fairly and ethically, and further to assure that student athletes are neither advantaged nor disadvantaged by special treatment and that institutions' athletics departments must:

- Comply with campus authorities and ensure that all athletics staff, coaches, administrators and student-athletes maintain a hostile-free environment for all student athletes regardless of gender or sexual orientation;

- know and follow campus protocol for reporting incidents of sexual violence;

- report immediately any suspected sexual violence to appropriate campus offices for investigation and adjudication;
• ...institutions' athletics departments must:
  – Educate all student-athletes, coaches and staff about sexual violence prevention, intervention and response;
  – Assure compliance with all federal and applicable state regulations related to sexual violence prevention and response; and
  – Cooperate with but not manage, direct, control or interfere with college or university investigations into allegations of sexual violence ensuring that investigations involving student-athletes and athletics department staff are managed in the same manner as all other students and staff on campus.

UNDERSTANDING THE THREE FORMS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual Harassment is

Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature or that is sex or gender-based

- Based on power differentials (quid pro quo),
- The creation of a hostile environment,
- Retaliation
INSTITUTIONAL OBLIGATIONS UNDER TITLE IX

Sexual Harassment

- Investigate
- Stop
- Prevent
- Remedy

INSTRUCTIVE CASES

  - High School basketball team
    - Team culture – reportedly rife with hazing/bullying
    - On team trip, Teammates assaulted freshmen (anal penetration with billiard cue).
  - OSU Legal Issues
    - Pre-assault & post-assault deliberate indifference
    - Deficient training of staff
  - Over 30 former students sued OSU over sexual abuse by Dr. Richard Strauss
    - Official sports team doctor
    - At OSU for 20 years
    - Historical nature of underlying misconduct & reports of pervasiveness
      - Coaches, physicians, others informed re: conduct
      - Required student-athletes to see Dr. Strauss
• Athletic department hostile educational environment.
• Insularity of teams and the athletic department
• Protectionism of teams and athletic department
• Coach-Athlete dynamic
  – Power-based
  – Trust-based
  – Recruitment
  – Performance meetings
• Coach-coach dynamic
UNIQUE CHALLENGES: TITLE IX AND STUDENT ATHLETICS

- Male privilege
- Body Image and focus on the body (especially women)
- Student-athlete on student-athlete violence.
- Power dynamics
- Revenue vs. non-revenue sports.
- Must-win mentality
• Culture of violence and aggressive behavior in sports.
• Male bonding and group loyalty.
• Sexualization and subordination of women in male team sports.
• Approval of sexist language and attitudes.
• Perception of “groupie culture.”
• Celebrity sense.
• Entitlement.
Frame intra-team dating as part of broader relationship management issues that can distract a team from their competitive goals, such as:

- Best friends on a team being cliquey or having a big falling out
- Two women on a team dating the same guy on a men’s team
- One teammate getting dumped by her boyfriend and then he starts dating one of her teammates
- Heterosexual dating on a mixed team
- Heterosexual dating on men’s and women’s teams that practice together and travel to competitions together
- Same-sex teammates dating on a men’s or on a women’s team
- Conflicts between white and black teammates
- Conflicts between gay and straight teammates
- Conflicts between Christian and non-Christian teammates

MANAGING DATING RELATIONSHIPS AMONG TEAMMATES

• Develop policy that applies to all relationship management issues rather than focusing on same-sex teammates dating
• Make policies about dating apply to all dating relationships not just same-sex dating
• Range of possible policies on intra-team dating:
  – Prohibit intra-team dating (Not recommended)
  – Ignore intra-team dating (Not recommended)
  – Proactively set expectations for intra-team dating and other dating relationships and interpersonal conflict on the team (Recommended)
